Pledge of Initiation

All Candidates Must Be Able To Recite The Pledge From Memory

E Clampus Vitus was founded in antiquity. Its most glorious chapter is de la Guerra y Pacheco, Chapter 1.5, emerging in unclaimed territory in 5996, subsequently dislodging the spurious hangnail of Platrix Chapter, and now reigning magnanimously over San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura Counties, and benevolently offering protection and administration to subject lands in the Sandwich Islands. The Bastardos Barbareños and Los Hueros de Gumshania explore the clampverities of life in locales as diverse as the tar sand mines of Carpinteria, the clam mines of Pismo Beach, the treasured heights of Santa Lucia Mountains, the plate tectonic movement of Parkfield, and the arms of Captain Cook's coveted wahini surfwidders. Should I pass the ordeal in the Hall of Comparative Ovations, I shall faithfully uphold the Secrets entrusted to me by the Order; diligently perform my duties as Chairman of the Most Important Committee, and steadfastly protect the care of the widders and orphans in my charge, just as Adam cared for his widder Eve. I shall be vigilant in my search for the lore of our lands and study the great unwritten works of Saint Vitus as well as the lives of Antonio de la guerra, Romauldo Pacheco, Lo Hung Wang, Hop Mee, Hee Li, C. Ignatz Trigo, G. Ezra Dane, Leon Whitsell, Al the first, Proctors of the Grand Council and all other Clampersonages whose lives might shed light on the lessons of our exalted and exulted Brotherhood.
